Description

Organic Spirulina Powder is one of the most inquired and popular nutritional supplements in the world that is most commonly found in powder form. Organic Spirulina Powder is a natural food additive with one of the most qualitative sources of protein – more than 60% of dry mass. Furthermore, it enriches the diet with scarce micronutrients and its digestibility along with amino acid composition are comparable to that of egg protein. Organic Spirulina Powder is used as a food coloring in the production of sweets, is a part of many cocktails, smoothies, teas, puddings, vitamin salads as well as an active ingredient in beauty masks. This unique composition of blue-green algae normalizes all physiological processes and functions in the body.
